

Landslide to Senator Harding

Majority Will Be One of Largest Ever Known

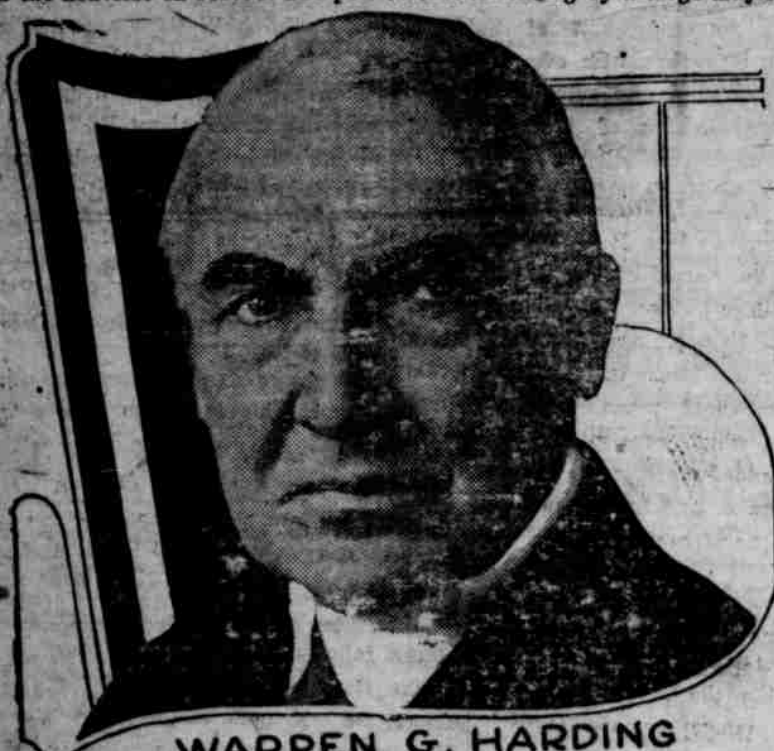

Practically Every Doubtful State Goes to Harding

BECKHAM APPEARS TO HAVE DEFEATED ERNST FOR SENATOR RESULT IN KENTUCKY VERY CLOSE

Showing strength of olden-times, the Republicans carried practically every debatable state in the Union, and Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge were elected President and Vice President, respectively at the polls Tuesday. This was the first national election in which women had participated throughout the entire United States and the vote polled was the heaviest on record. The peo-

Kentucky Appears To Be Democratic

Incomplete returns indicate that Kentucky was carried by Cox by a small majority. With practically all of the cities heard from, and most of the counties in the Central and Western districts, Cox and the entire ticket is leading by a large majority, ple of these United States seem restless and dissatisfied and the main reason for the overwhelming election of the Republican candidates is the desire of the people for a change of administration, not the death of the League of Nations.

Ohio Republican

Harding carried Ohio by a majority estimated in the neighborhood of 20,000.

Indiana for G. O. P.

Indiana was carried by Harding by about 40,000.

New York for Harding

New York and all other Eastern States, give the Republican ticket the largest majority in its history.

West for Harding

California and all the Pacific Coast States give Harding and the entire Republican ticket an unprecedented majority.

Illinois by 300,000

Harding carried Illinois by over 300,000.

but with a number of Republican strongholds in the Tenth and the Eleventh districts yet to hear from, we are told by the Lexington Herald at 6 o'clock this morning that there is some doubt as to Cox carrying Kentucky, although it was their opinion that the Democrats would have a small majority in the Blue Grass State.

Beckham Wins

Beckham is reported to have undoubtedly defeated Richard Ernst, his Republican opponent, for the United States Senate.

Blue Grass for Cox

Practically all of the counties in the Blue Grass section gave Cox and the Democratic ticket the largest majorities ever known.

Bourbon county gives Cox a majority of about 1,500.

Menefee county goes Democratic by over 400.

Rowan county goes Republican by a small majority.

CALVIN COOLIDGE

Our Next Vice President

Clark county gives a Democratic majority of about 1,800.

Fields appears to have defeated Blair for Congress in this district.

Returns indicate Gilbert has won over his Republican opponent, King Swope, by a majority of several thousand.

Returns indicate the re-election of Senator Beckham over Richard Ernst by at least 30,000.

Louisville for Harding

Louisville and Jefferson county went for Harding and the entire Republican ticket by a big majority.

News Slow Coming

Owing to the record-breaking vote cast the news of the final result is late coming over the wires, but indications point to the largest majority ever given a Republican candidate.

Montgomery County Gives Record Majority

Election day passed off in this city and county quietly, the women taking an active part and doing much to swell the Democratic majority. It was no uncommon sight to see women on their way to the polls who had not been seen on the streets in years and to their remarkable efforts much of the credit for the unprecedented Democratic majority is due. Complete returns from the entire county give Cox a majority of 901; for Senator Beckham a majority of 930; for Circuit Judge Prewitt a majority of 857.

The following were elected for school trustees in the county: Morton Faulkner, R. C. Palmeter, H. B. Prewitt, F. M. Lockridge and Shirley Mason.

Bath county is reported to have gone Democratic by a majority of about 400.

Prewitt's election to the bench seems assured by a large majority, he apparently having defeated his Republican opponent, Wallace Guggell, of Owingsville, by an overwhelming majority.

Pangburn Post To Meet Sunday

At this meeting the Hon. William A. Robinson, special representative from the War Risk Bureau at Washington, will address the service men of Montgomery county, explaining the latest rulings on government insurance, disability compensation and vocational training. Commander Brown urges that every Legionnaire and non-Legionnaire attend this meeting, that they may take advantage of the numerous benefits which are offered them by the United States Government.

Centre and State Meet Defeat on Foreign Fields

Centre College, the pride of Kentucky, went down in defeat Saturday before the football warriors of Georgia Tech to the tune of 31 to 0. The Centre team showed a decided reversal of form since their magnificent showing against Harvard a week previous and the playing of the team showed the effects of the game at Cambridge, and their efforts against the strong Southern eleven proved dismal failures.

On the same afternoon at Nashville the University of Kentucky was defeated by the strong Vanverbilt team by the score of 20 to 0. The State boys put up a game fight against heavy odds and did well to hold the score as low as they did.

A Message to Our Front Page Friends

This is a little message to the friend who asked us to "please put this on the front page."

Sometimes this friend is a man, sometimes a woman, and even the young people are getting the habit.

It's always a good indication when such a request is made. It means that the writer is interested in his or her subject. It shows appreciation of position in a newspaper and a modest desire to accept the best.

Sometimes, however, it might be added, the choice is unwise. There are news features which are expected on the front page and there are others, particularly in the Advocate, that are not expected on that page, but have their own positions on other pages.

Some of these friends who make these requests are some of our town's very good housekeepers. They would "have a fit" if someone left the dishpan in the living room. They would have another if they did not find the dishpan in the kitchen, where it belongs.

We, in the print shop, are a little bit the same way. We have a page for display news, another for locals, personals and church notes, another for news of surrounding communities, another for editorial matters, and others for general matter.

Yes, indeed, now that we all come to think of it, we agree that we don't want everything on the front page, after all.
